Mythology

with Prof. Nancy Stork

From Aphrodite to Princess Moonbeam, Horus to Sun Wukong, and Anansi to Angel's Egg we explore the universal themes and concerns of mythological literature. Come learn about the Undead and why men with donkeys are both wise and foolish. Snake Women as well! This survey of world mythology is open to graduates and undergraduates.
