

English 141

MEDIEVAL LIT

with Prof. Nancy Stork

Did you ever wonder how Old English
wyrd, meaning 'fate' became 'weird'?
This survey of Medieval Literature will focus on literary, historical, textual and linguistic aspects of the evolution from Old to Middle English. Along the way we will consider how heroes like Beowulf were supplanted by heroes like Lancelot and King Arthur. Open to undergraduate and graduate students.

Spring 2026 / MW 9:00-10:15am

SJSU

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH AND COMPARATIVE LITERATURE